Originally from Merseyside in North West England, Suzanne is a Director of Photography with over 17 years experience in the industry. She first moved to London to work for a camera and lighting rental house as an in-house technician and camera assistant, before leaving to work as a freelance assistant on high end dramas. Suzanne started shooting on documentaries, learning how to shoot quickly and work with natural light. She has regularly attended courses and masterclasses throughout her career and developed a striking and detail-focused lighting style through her extensive work on short films, as well as commercials, promos and publicity.

Suzanne's most recent credits include short film Block, a commercial for outdoor clothing company TROY London, and a promotional shoot for "Queen Charlotte: A Bridgerton Story". She is a Friend of the Association of Camera Operators (ACO) and a BAFTA Connect Member.
